FAIR? IT WAS GREAT!

Everybody knows by now that as a social event this year's Country Fair was a triumph. Now it is becoming apparent that it was also-- and more importantly--a big financial success.

Final figures weren't ready when we went to press (we'll have them next month), but President Charles A. McCafferty pronounced the results "highly successful." And Fair Chairman Donnie Watson, still collecting receipts and paying bills, was able to report that "we'll probably double last year's income."

HOSPITAL HEAD LAUDS OFFICERS

Charles A. McCafferty, president of the Riddle Memorial Hospital's Board of Directors, this week lauded the numerous auxiliary officers and committee chairmen who, as the result of recent elections, are retiring from their positions.

"Everybody knows what a marvelous job Riddle's auxiliaries have done in the short time they have been in existence," Mr. McCafferty said. "But no organization can be effective without effective leadership. And under the many women who have served as auxiliary officers and committee chairmen, and as officers of the Associated Auxiliaries, we have had splendidly effective leadership during these crucial formative days.

"Most of the retiring officers have been pioneers in the development of Riddle's auxiliaries, and with the devoted efforts of their members, they have built a strong foundation on which to perform the vital work of our auxiliaries. I speak for the entire board of directors in expressing my heartfelt thanks to each of them, and my assurance that their successors will carry on in the same fine spirit."

ELECTIONS...ELECTIONS
...AND MORE ELECTIONS

Last month's rash of elections, following adoption of the uniform fiscal year, have produced eight new auxiliary presidents. Five others have been re-elected, and in three cases no new elections were held because the auxiliaries (Springfield, Moylan-Rose Valley, and Swarthmore) are relatively new.

Other officers were also elected (and re-elected) and committee chairmen appointed and re-appointed. Here they are, in alphabetical order.

BEATTY HILLS. President--Mrs. Charles A. McCafferty (re-elected); VP--Mrs. R. Y. Shetzline; Secy--Mrs. John Carlson (re-elected); treasr.--Mrs. S. A. Nichols (re-elected); Chairmen: Mrs. Ralph T. BREAKING THE GROUND. Charles A. McCafferty, president of the Board of Directors, is exhibiting fine form with the shovel as he performs the traditional groundbreaking ceremony at the Riddle Country Fair September 17. Ranged alongside him, left to right, are Pennsylvania Superior Court Judge Harold L. Ervin, Mrs. William A. Watson, Fair chairman, and Mrs. Donald V. Cooper, Associated Auxiliaries treasurer. (Zimmerman Photo)

HAVE YOU HEARD...???

...that photographs of the Country Fair are on exhibit at the Hospital Headquarters, 5 W. Front St., Media, as well as at Zimmerman's (see note on Page 4) and can be ordered from Bob Economy. . . that the Fielder Coffins Jr. (De De is Moylan-Rose Valley President) are sailing on the Gripsholm Oct. 24 for a week's cruise to Nassau . . . that Gradyville's buffet supper at the Petti Arms, under the direction of Nancy Kolp (new program chairman) was a smash hit with all who attended. The returns were a home run, too--$400...

...that Bowling Green has launched a membership drive... that the ladies of Lima are deeply appreciative of the hospitality of Wild Goose owner Catherine Wilcox. The auxiliary holds its monthly meetings there. . . that Donald Bertolett, wife of the Riddlewood Auxiliary's new president, is keeping pace with the distaff side: he's the new president of the Riddlewood Community Association... that Newtown Square's former president Nancy Winther and family have moved to suburban Boston... that Lima raises money by passing around a "penny jar" at the end of each meeting and garning the girls' loose change. Makes good cents . . . Molly (Mrs. Neville C.) Gee has been named district manager for World Book & Childcraft...

SWARTHMORE JOINS THE RIDDLE GANG

We're a little late with the news (their first meeting was --blush--in May), but none-the-less happy to announce the formation of the latest Riddle Memorial Hospital auxiliary--Swarthmore. That makes 15, if you haven't been keeping count.

Membership, under the leadership of President Liz (Mrs. Bartine) Stoner and her crew of officers and committees, is already up to 32, "with many more to come," Publicity Chairman Glenna Torrey proudly tells us.

Typical of Riddle auxiliaries, Swarthmore is already assiduously active. Member Beb Thompson was Gingerbread Booth chairman at the Fair. Vice-President Mrs. Pelzer (Elaine) Lynah is in charge of selling Christmas cards and can take your order at KI 3-2279. The auxiliary held a cocktail party this past summer and is planning another for November.

Other officers and committee chairmen are Mrs. J. C. (Marilyn) Foller, secretary, Mrs. John (Carol) Gersbach, treasurer, Mrs. Joseph (Tossie) Corr, program chairman, and Mrs. Wilfred (Billie) Brown, membership.

A warm welcome to Swarthmore, and best wishes from all of us!

NEXT QUESTION--- IN ADVANCE, PLEASE

At the August Coordinating Committee meeting, Associated Auxiliaries Vice-President Miriam McCafferty asked that all important questions that must be considered by all auxiliaries be submitted in writing to the Coordinating Committee officers two weeks in advance of the meeting, whenever possible.

Mrs. McCafferty explained that this will give the officers time to consider the question and be prepared to handle it more efficiently in the course of discussing it and disposing of it during the Coordinating Committee meetings.

CALENDAR CHANGES

They're easy--and important. Keep your members accurately informed of your meeting time and place each month. If it's going to be different next month, let me know. If it changes every month, let me know every month. If I don't get it right, shoot me. But let me know. And write and phone your Riddlegram news any time to
