For Women's Auxiliaries

A note from Alice — February, 1964

Dear Friends,

My duties involve gathering newsworthy items from your Auxiliaries through your Public Relations Representatives and/or presidents for "RIDDLEGRAM" copy. I am interested (and so are 649 auxiliaries !!!) in your organization's activities and in personal news about your members.

There are surely a few items to be reported each month by each Auxiliary. Each of you submit your items to your Public Relations Representative (and they, in turn, to your Editor, Gene Reiley) and help your "RIDDLEGRAM" keep us well informed.

You should remember to do so before the deadline date! (March deadline date is February 18.) We will try to use what ever news we receive.

See you in print.

We Cherish The Memories Of The Pleasant Things In Life

The First Noel for Riddle — Celebrated on December 19th by approximately 200 young and older residents in the Media area, marked the historic beginning of what it is hoped will be an annual event. When President Charles A. McCafferty welcomed all the Scout troops, Brownies and accompanying parents as they assembled at 7 p.m. in front of the hospital, he stressed the fine opportunity everyone had to become better acquainted with each other, as well as with their wonderful hospital, as they joined in singing carols around the Christmas tree. Lights went on, voices rang out through the stillness of the night, with a new moon and bright stars above to further dramatize the occasion. A never-to-be-forgotten memory for all who braved the cold to participate in Riddle's FIRST NOEL.

Permission was granted for special groups to sing carols on certain floors of the hospital. One girl Scout Troop even sang theirs in French! After which all were invited to the Cafeteria, for refreshments contributed for the occasion. Hot milk-chocolate, from Wawa Dairies, and (fortunately) a bountiful supply of cakes quickly disappeared as the lines of beautifully behaved children took over! And the unanimous answer to questions put to the adults present, about their opinion of our "experimental program" was "We need more of this kind of thing in our Community!"

So — We are already planning for NEXT Christmas! Mrs. Merrill Fowle, Chairman of the Riddle Landscaping Committee which provided the special Christmas tree, already has the enthusiastic offer of help from both Mrs. Charles McCafferty and Mrs. Cyril G. Fox, her assistants for this "first." Various Troop leaders have asked to participate in the advance planning, so by next year not only will the Christmas tree be BIGGER 'n BETTER but so WILL THE PARTY!! Pediatrics enjoys first Holiday party. On Friday, December 20, from 3:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., eight children patients enjoyed a lively Christmas party in the playroom. Mrs. Santa Claus (Mrs. Kathryn Leake of Lima Provident Tradesmen Bank) put in a surprise appearance and presented each child with a gift. The children were entertained by a Riddlewood Aux volunteer with hand puppets amidst a colorfully decorated windowed room painted by Mrs. Betty Fritz and staff. Patients present: Kim Raymond, Ronald Richardson, Debbie Wilson, Donald Wallin, Charles Fritz, Barbara Ellison, Robin Bufalo, and Carmel Sokolowski.
