VOLUNTEER AWARDS LUNCHEON A HUGE SUCCESS

Everyone who attended the Volunteer Awards Luncheon on April 27, 1977 was very pleased. Awards were presented in recognition of service rendered to Riddle Memorial Hospital and its patients. It was gratifying to hear the names of many who contributed from under 100 hours to 100, 200, 300, 400, 500, 600, 700, 800, 900; then 1000, 2000, 3000, 5000, and yes, Jan Parks at 6000 hours! It is just humanly impossible to place a value on the worth of these people and their services! Our hospital is justly proud of its volunteers and salutes them! Space does not permit us to list each one by name and the number of hours but as Mary and Emily of the Volunteer Office said in their delightful yellow booklet, "WE LOVE YOU ALL".....and really, we do!
