

"HAVE A HAPPY DAY"

VOLUME XVIII NO. 40

RIDDLE MEMORIAL FOUNDATION

APRIL, 1986

AN EVENING TO REMEMBER
"A SUCCESSFUL EVENT"

The twenty eighth annual MAN O' WAR BALL was held at Wilmington Country Club. Everyone enjoyed scrumptuous hors d' oeuvres and cocktails while enjoying the violin music rendered by Emil Scully. A very relaxing setting, A MAGIC OF SPRING was present.

The Ballroom was picturesque with purple silk taffeta floor length table cloths, and a bouquet of fresh spring flowers on every table.

the evening. Dr. Kipp is the originator and forerunner of our fifth Auction. Apropos to the Easter Season, Dr. Charles M. Kipp, (RMF Chief of Anesthesiology) was presented with Easter Bunny ears and cotton bunny tail. "Our Ether Bunny". A fabulous job. A variety of items were auctioned and presented. A Balloon Ride For Two, Mr. Richard Wagner - Jacques Ferber Furs, Natural Ranch Mink Jacket (origin, United States) Mr. Paul Wilkinson. Natural Blue Fox Jacket (origin, Norway) Mr. Edward Behrle. A unique tribute to unique Americans, handsomely crafted pewter Civil War Chess Set donated by the Franklin Mint, (Lynda and Stewart Resnick), Mr. Robert W. Lobb. Number One Dinner Package, Kitty Wagner - Number Two Dinner Package, Dr. Vera Howland. Number Three Dinner Package, Patti Colburn. Dinner Packages included weekends, lunches, dinners and Valley Forge Theatre tickets.

The ceramic Easter bunnies in each dinner basket package was made by Janet Behrle of Middletown Auxiliary. Cynthia Kipp decorated all baskets and "Up, Up, and Away Balloon". We are blessed with such talents of all.

Delightful dancing was made possible by the great tunes of the nostalgic Jimmy Dorsey Orchestra, accompanied by beautifully gowned ladies and handsome gentlemen.

The Associated Auxiliaries wish to thank all who support this annual function by attending, and also contributing as a Sponsor or Patron. This kind of support is what stimulates us to continue and work for Riddle Memorial Foundation.

A JOB WELL DONE

MY SINCERE "THANKS" AND APPRECIATION TO A VERY TALENTED AND SUPPORTIVE COMMITTEE, THEY CERTAINLY DID PRESENT AN "EVENING TO REMEMBER".

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMITTEE WE WISH TO THANK ALL OUR LOYAL SUPPORTERS. WITHOUT THEM WE COULD NOT SUCCEED. - CORNIE BURCKHARDT
