COUNTRY FAIR, 1988

HAPPY DAYS ARE HERE
DR. JOHN KOTYO

HERE WE GO AGAIN - this time for our 31st ANNUAL COUNTRY FAIR! Plans have been in the making since January, and the Fair Committee promises one fantastic fun filled weekend under sunny skies.

Look for a large tent this year which will hold a new attraction - a "Hole In One" for all you golfers. Administration will be handling the game. Be sure to stop by.

Lori Laughlin will be bringing back our card readers by popular demand.

Lou D'Alessandro and John Meehan and the Maintenance Department of Riddle Memorial Hospital will be back with their total Italian Booth - sausages, meatballs, hoagies, and Mrs. D'Alessandro's homemade sauce.

Rose and Jim Hopkins have volunteered to make the soup - one more time. What would we do without them.

Rob Santilli will be rolling the dice.

Lambda Chi Alpha Alumni will be raking in the quarters and handing out the bears.

The man who can land on a dime, Bill Muggleston, will be there with Helicopter Rides with Beatty Hills Auxiliary selling tickets along with Al Moyer's midway of rides for young and old.

Irene Marshall, Rose Tree Auxiliary, has some great prizes to be won at the Bee Hive. Bee Hive really buzzing.

Lima Auxiliary has been sewing up a storm and putting up preserves for the Country Store, plus cheese and hot pretzels. A place to meet eat and greet. Chanced off will be Raggedy Ann and Andy and a cuisnart.

Doctor's wives will be blowing up the balloons, thanks to Dr. Whitney's wife.

Letty Clark will be appearing in her clown suit to handle the Children's Corner.

Concord Auxiliary will be tending to 3 games of chance and skill.

1,000 flyers were sent out for "HELP" for volunteers to work at the Fair. Thank you Selma Rende's mother-in-law for stuffing all the envelopes.

Our wonderful Thrift Shop volunteers will be calling the Bingo numbers.

Middletown Auxiliary will furnish us with coffee and goodies. All home baked goods.

Pris Wood, Nether Providence Auxiliary, will be handing out money to the lucky winners of the Ball Roll.

Our volunteer Ambulance companies will be on hand again.

The Daughters Of Penelope will be back again with their Greek Pastries.

Media Auxiliary will be serving up the franks and kraut.

Our nurses are geering up to flip those hamburgers.

Arts and Crafts, Computerized T-Shirts, Christmas items - lots and lots of things for sale.

Jinks Jones and Pat Bergeman have some super entertainment planned for the stage and some surprize guests. Charles Sterling Wynn wrote a special letter to Flyer, Scott Mellanby, inviting him to our great Fair.

Springhaven Auxiliary and MAB Jewelers have some lovely diamonds and gold to be won by some lucky people.

From now until Fair time, you can find Nina and Jack Cruice and Alice and Nels Wilkinson in the Quonset Hut or on the Grounds.

All in all, weather permitting, it is going to be a great Fair. COME SHARE THE FUN AND DREAM WITH US ON SEPTEMER 9th, 10th and 11th!

HELICOPTER RIDES AND CARD READERS ALL WEEKEND

MESSAGE FROM COUNTRY FAIR CHAIRMAN

On behalf of the entire Committee, I welcome you to our 31st Annual Country Fair. We hope you will enjoy the fun-filled weekend we have planned for you.

Through the community's support of our activities, the Associated Auxiliaries have been able to contribute over three million dollars to Riddle Memorial Hospital.

We are proud to be a part of our first class medical facilities.

DUCHESS WYNN, CHAIRMAN
1988 COUNTRY FAIR

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Final preparations are underway for our 31st Annual Country Fair.

It would be impossible to stage our Annual Fair without the support we receive from the Auxilians, Volunteers, Hospital employees, medical staff, and their families and friends. Their dedicated support makes our Fair such a success.

OUR THANKS TO ALL!!!

PAT BERGEMAN, PRESIDENT
ASSOCIATED AUXILIARIES
